Nancy Wynne Tells of the Tennis at Newport-She Regrets Younger Set Is Not More Guarded Here. Miss Laura Biddle Undergoes Operation

THE girls' singles tennis tournament week, where he will join Mrs. Biddle opened at the Casino in Newport on at their villa, Aerie. Monday, and I am nafurally interested, as Rita Dolan and several other Philadelphians are taking part. Rita Philadelphians are taking part. Rita won the first day from Theodora Winstew Winslow were unable to attend the first day and so both lost, which is too bad. It is never much satisfied by the first day are in that way. faction to win a game in that way.

However, Rita was able to prove her

However, faith was able to prove her playing yesterday and won her game.

The Casine was gay with spectators, the women in smart freeks and the men in flannels. Mr. and Mrs. Clarrie men in flannels. Mr. and Mrs. Clarrie Dolan were there to watch Rita play. They gave a dinner on Monday night to about twenty guests. The Dolans do a great deal of entertaining every summer in Newport, and the girls are extremely popular in the younger set. Rita will be coming out this year probably, and there'll be a lot of parties There's a younger girl in the Tom Dolan family, too, Isabel. She'll be making her bow in a couple of years

By well.

Rita Dolan is a sister of Rose and Alexandra, and Isabel is a sister of Sarah Dolan, who married Paul Denckla, and of Tom and Hoffman Denckla, and of Tom and Hoffman Delan.

T WAS sorry to hear that Laura Biddie had to have an operation at the Newport Hospital on Monday, but for-tunately it was only a minor one, removing the tonsils, and while that is painful and unpleasant, it is not apt o make one ill for any length of time. Laura is growing so tall it does not seem possible that she is not yet seven-teen. She is her mother's height now carries herself beautifully. I am she will be well enough to take part in the pageant the latter part of this month in Newport, for you know Mrs. Howard Graham has chosen her as 'leading lady.' Laura has been most carefully brought up and is very

Do you know it may sound like rank treachery, but I think the younger generation in New York and in Bos-ton, too, for that matter, has not the freedom of our young people here. And it seems a pity that I am able to say so. But I know a good many girls and boys of sixteen and seventeen who live in New York and are members of the second of t boys of sixteen and seventeen who live in New York and are members of the smart set, and I assure you when parties are given for them a punch bowl is not placed in the room with so strong an amount of "kick" that the little boys quite lose their heads and some have to be sent home because they say and do things that are not what they and do things that are not what they

Only this year there was a dance at which the punch flowed "not wisely, but also too well," at a party for young boys and girls, and the elders saw no reason why they should not serve it. Several of the little girls became hilarious, too, and that party is being talked about from Main Line to being talked about from Main Line to Chestnut Hill, from Chestnut Hill to Penllyn and back again. And I doubt if t will die down very soon.

I am glad to say that among the little girls of sixteen and seventeen who attended there were several who were shocked and who said they did not want to go to that home again.

And it was not at the home of a

They were having the L.—s in for sup-per and Mrs. Newly-Wed was as busy as could be getting ready for them. Said she to the maid. "I'll sugar the iced tea and arrange the ice and mint sprays in the glasses," and forth-with she did.

Well the supper progressed nicely and the little bride was having a won-derful time entertaining her guests. Suddenly she noticed the beautiful clear iced tea were not being iken. Now be it known, she does not like tea herself, so she had not tasted the heverage and so she remarked, "I'm on want more sugar in your tea, per-haps I did not sweeten it enough." one exclaimed unanimously and with such great fervor "Oh. no thans she became suspicious and turned to her husband, because she knew he loved it and yet he was not "Is anything wrong?" she whispered in agonized tones.
